

Prof. Dr. F. Banu ANLAR

She graduated from Ankara Tevfik Fikret High School in 1972 and from Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine with the first degree in 1978, and received his specialist training in child health and diseases and child neurology at the same institution.

Post-graduation training:

In the field of neuroimmunology: University of Chicago, Research Associate (1989-91); Master's Degree: Hacettepe University Faculty of Medicine, Department of Medical Biology (1993-1995); Molecular biology guest researcher: University of Michigan, Neurology (Feldman Lab.) (1998).

Academic titles:

She became an associate professor at Hacettepe University in 1989 and a professor in 1995, and retired in 2023.

Memberships:

Turkish Child Neurology Society membership (1994-), Board of Directors membership (2004-2006), European Pediatric Neurology Society (EPNS) membership (2000-2023) and Board of Directors membership (2006-2018); International Child Neurology Association (ICNA) membership and Board of Directors membership (2006-2018); Membership of Asian and Oceanian Child Neurology Association (AOCNA) (1998-).

Awards :

İhsan Doğramacı Special Award (1978), Hacettepe Faculty of Medicine First Prize, TÜBİTAK Incentive Award (1995)

Foreign languages: English, French and Spanish

Other duties in various periods:

T.R. Ministry of Health S.B. Membership of the Vaccine Side Effects Monitoring Commission, project evaluations (TUBİTAK, HUTF Scientific Research Fund, European Union Horizon 2020)